First National Wealth Management Launches Private Banking

Where you only have to tell your story once

WEST CHESTER – First National Bank of Chester County has launched Private Banking. As part of the First National Wealth Management division, Private Banking will serve the banking and investment needs of the Bank’s top tier clients.

Clients of Private Banking will have their deposit, credit, and investment needs met through a Private Banker who will be their single point of contact. The assigned Private Banker, with expertise in personal banking, credit, investment strategies, and private wealth planning, will develop a deep, personal relationship with their clients that will result in a seamless delivery of services. This service has been designed to efficiently meet the unique financial needs of the busy professional, business owner, or high net worth retiree.

“With a growing number of affluent individuals and households in Chester County, First National Wealth Management’s Private Banking group will now enable the Bank to deliver a robust suite of banking and wealth management products and services to these individuals,” said Clay T. Henry, Executive Vice President of First National’s Wealth Management Division. “We are excited about the opportunity to provide these much needed services to our clients and other affluent individuals.”

First Chester County Corporation and its wholly owned subsidiary, First National Bank of Chester County, is a financial institution with 23 branch offices located in Chester, Delaware, Lancaster and Cumberland counties. Founded in 1863, First National Bank of Chester County is the eighth oldest national bank in the country. First National provides quality financial services to individuals, businesses, government entities, non profit organizations, and community service groups. Wealth Management and Trust Services are provided through First National Wealth Management, a division of First National Bank of Chester County. Mortgage services are provided through American Home Bank, a division of First National Bank of Chester County. American Home Bank (AHB) has multiple national delivery channels in the retail and wholesale mortgage arena as well as joint venture mortgage partnerships with builder and systems-built manufacturers.
